“Singing with children in the schools has been the most rewarding experience of my life,” and “A good song reminds us what we’re fighting for.” - Pete Seeger

The WITS program brings music and social awareness into our schools and empowers children through song. Our program is designed to expose children to social and environmental issues of today as well as to events of the past. History has shown how powerful a song can be, from the civil rights and antiwar movements to workers rights and as recently as the Black Lives Matter movement and the Worldwide Climate Initiative.

The Walkabout Clearwater Chorus was founded by Pete Seeger in 1984 and is dedicated to promoting environmental awareness and social activism through song, education and other activities.
